Dr. Matthews' prescriptions

Dr. Bruce Matthews, a physician in Washington, D.C., tells of writing prescriptions for a woman who complained of frequent migraine headaches. One prescription was for the latest migraine medication. Another prescription suggested that she read "Come to me all you that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest" in Matthew 11:28.

Dr. Matthews has found that faith has a definite effect on physical healing. He has learned that prayer has a calming effect. He noticed that those who read inspiring biblical passages have found inner peace, courage and the reframing of their problems in a more constructive way.

For example, a 31-year-old woman with cancer found that the story of the woman who touched the hem of Jesus' garment and was healed (Luke 8:43) gave her hope and quieted her anxiety. An alcoholic who was deeply depressed about his problem was told to read about King Saul and David and the apostle Paul, all of whom had bouts of depression at times. Doing so, the addict was able to get beyond his feelings of depression and proceed with treatment.

"As a physician," says Dr. Matthews, "I believe we can effectively aid healing by turning to God with a willing heart." That is why he keeps the Bible as close at hand as his medical books

Report about our Sister Church in Cuba

For those of you who do not know, Trinity continues to support the San Antonio Del Rio Blanco Church in Cuba. The Cuba Conference has recently voted to leave the United Methodist Church as we did. They had the vote at their recent Yearly Cuba Annual Conference meeting. The Pastor is Yohandros Sojo and he is the third pastor at that church since we became involved in supporting them. We have sent several people down to visit in the past 15 years or so. Since we have not visited recently our main focus has been to provide money for their operations and missions works. They send 4 groups to the areas outside of their home base and teach and bring the word of God to areas in Cuba where there are no churches. Below are a few pictures which they have shared with us. Pray for their continued growth and success.

Once The Door Is Shut

Get away from your worldly occupations for a while, escape from your tumultuous thoughts. Lay aside your burdensome cares and put off your laborious exertions.

Give yourself over to God for a little while, and rest for a while in Him. Enter into the cell of your mind, shut out everything except God and whatever helps you to seek Him once the door is shut. Speak now, my heart, and say to God, "I seek your face; your face, Lord, I seek.

Words To Live By

- There is no remedy for love but to love more. —Henry David Thoreau
- The cat and the love you give away come back to you.
- Man is not a peace with his fellow man because he is not at peace with himself. He is not at peace with himself because he is not at peace with God. —Thomas Merton
- In this day, God is looking for men of faith. God is not looking for men who have faith enough to believe that God can achieve the impossible. ---Philip Muinde
- If you must slander someone, do not speak it; write it in the sand near the water's edge.
- The things which matter most must never be at the mercy of things which matter least. --Goeth
