JESUS WAS A TEACHER

Jesus was a teacher. We call our lord by many names—Messiah, Son of God, Savior, the Great Physician, and the servant of God and humans. But the one name of primary importance is teacher.

Jesus came forth from a religious tradition that put the greatest importance upon instruction in the faith. The teacher—or rabbi, as he was called—occupied a revered place in Judaism. An instructor of the faith and particularly one who undertook the instruction of youth were very serious considerations. The best minds and the most able persons were recruited for the task of teaching.

Jesus was a teacher in the strictest Jewish sense. His vocation, however, was not so much teaching about how to get along in life, but teaching the way of life—what it is all about, what God expects of us, what love requires of us. It was not humankind in general that Jesus taught, but persons in particular—the individual as God's child. While Jesus' teaching was applicable for all, it was always directed to the individual. Jesus taught individuals about life under God's loving guidance and care. Jesus taught what we are to be, what we are to do, how we are to live and to love under the guidance of God.

Bread of Life

Dear Trinity UMC

I have identified a Sparks/Mission program that will give us the opportunity to pass on God's love. It will allow us to enhance the lives of some brothers and sisters who are at the end stage of life.

They are in the Memory Unit at Vintage Care on Moody Road as a result of having some form of Dementia. Some have families bringing in care packages as needed but others are less fortunate.

Will you agree to help them make their activities of daily living better? Can you supply them with:

- Grip socks - Toothbrushes - Bed pads
- Toothpaste - Toothpaste - Pull-ups, diapers (all sizes; mostly for woman)
- Combs - Lotion - Anything you feel led to contribute
- Brushes - Wipes

There are only about 20 rooms on that Unit so large quantity of supplies are not needed at this time. We hope to be able to let them have these supplies by the end of October.

You are sparks spreading God's love...

Yours in Christ

We are uniquely made by God as Mr. Bob studied with the children about the creation.

Playing bingo to learn about Abraham with the answers being the boxes on the bingo card.

Making a camel's mouth out of apples, peanut butter, and marshmallows to remind us Abraham obeyed God and took his camels, family and possessions and followed where God sent him.

Making stars to remind us God's Promise is still there today.

Making cards to mail to the church family to remind them of God's blessings during this Fall Season.

Herding sheep (aka yellow balloons) as Abraham herded his sheep to another land.
